INTERNSHIP NOTICE #48

- Cultivating Aspiring Leaders. Morgan Stanley is sponsoring the Cultivating Aspiring Leaders, an exciting non-profit founded in 2008 which motivates, trains and supports high-potential minority teens and young adults to be active leaders, educators and mentors in their careers, families and communities. The mission of the program is to train these students to give back to their communities by contributing their professional knowledge and expertise through inter-generational mentoring, targeted skill-building and leadership training. Interested high school students are encouraged to apply. Please have the student complete and submit the online application by May 15st, 2012:
