Greetings from New York City!
Have your students started to think about their summer plans? Have they considered the chance to study and explore all while meeting a fascinating group of students in New York City?

Summer in New York City, a Pre-College Program at Barnard College of Columbia University, offers young men and women a unique opportunity to sample pre-college courses while exploring NYC both in and out of the classroom. Our campus is located on the Upper West Side of Manhattan, on a beautiful four-acre, residential campus.

Students will learn from dynamic faculty and take classes that hone their critical reading and writing skills. Courses are available in a variety of intriguing subjects each designed to open their minds to new possibilities. Their studies may take them backstage on Broadway or to City Hall to meet with city leaders. The faculty is encouraged to use Manhattan as the ideal laboratory for exploring ideas.

Choose from a variety of stimulating courses in subjects such as:

- Africana Studies
- Architecture
- Dance
- Environmental Studies
- Film Studies
- History
- Journalism
- Literature
- Mixed Media
- Music
- Philosophy
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Religious Studies
- Sociology
- Studio Art and Art History
- Theatre
- Urban Studies
- Women’s Studies
- Writing
- ...and more

Beyond the classroom students have the chance to explore Central Park, the skyscrapers of Midtown, The High Line, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and a myriad of other museums and sites. Students also have the opportunity to participate in workshops designed to prepare them for their college search and applications as well as to explore career choices by visiting workplaces of varying types around New York City.

We offer a coed four-week program and several one-week options. And note – new this year -- Dance in the City! To find out more about our programs, click on www.barnard.edu/precollege . Please pass this along to your students as well.
